An Elf Pranked Santa

On December 24th on a snowy day in the North Pole, Santa woke up like nobody else. He was happy and excited. To deliver all the hard work the elves had put together. Santa would give all the gifts later that night to all the children who deserved it. Santa jumped out of bed and quickly got into his work clothes. Santa entered the bathroom and looked in the mirror. He thought something was wrong with his face, but what?

Mrs. Claus opened the bathroom door and saw Santa's beard cut off.

"Oh dear Santa what happened to your beard? It's gone!" said Mrs. Claus. Santa looked in the mirror again and said,

"Oh dear what happened to my beard?"

Mrs. Claus and Santa went to the workshop and asked all the elves who had done this naughty trick. All of the elves said

"Not me." But one elf looked guilty, his name was Charlie.

Santa told the elf to leave and never come back. Mrs. Claus made Santa's favourite cookies with a bit of love and hope Santa took a bite. His beard grew back instantly! Santa was happy and gave all the children their gifts.

Should we get presents (against)

It's not just about getting presents; it's about Jesus' birth.

We get presents to represent the three wise men that brought the three gifts to Mary and Joseph to say congratulation but some people don't understand the meaning.

Some people like presents more than spending time with their family.

On Christmas day people are excited for the presents and they don't even realise what Christmas is all

Gifts at Christmas (For)

According to the bible, the three kings brought Jesus gifts, and we do the same for others.

Gifts bring the Christmas spirit to life.

Gifts motivate the children to behave.

To receive a gift makes a person happy.
